National Supplier Directory

Our National Supplier Directory features over 1,000 businesses covering every aspect of the film and TV supply chain, from catering and car hire to prop houses and post-production suites. Whether you're a production seeking reliable, local suppliers or a business looking to build your industry reputation, we've got you covered. Showcase your business to productions actively seeking specialist suppliers through our National Supplier Directory, where you can highlight your professional, environmental, and ethical credentials. It's open to all sectors—not just film and TV—so if your services support production in any way, you belong here!

Filming in England Guidance Centre

Creative England's Filming in England team are building a guidance centre of resources to aid film and TV productions in planning their shoot and provide a comprehensive area of resource and guidance for all pipeline-businesses. Whether you're interested in learning more about the processes or the economic opportunities within the world of film and TV production, you can find what you need right on our Resources page HERE

Filming in England Connect Industry Mixers

Our Industry Mixer networking evenings strive to bring together Film & TV crew from all backgrounds and experience levels. By uniting regional based crew, supply chain businesses and supporting local partners we are uniquely placed to convene industry conversations, fostering new opportunities for attendees.

Want to get involved? Please get in touch with: crewservice@filminginengland.co.uk and future Connect Events will be listed on the Filming in England's Event page HERE
