

IT'S TIME TO...

That Thing: Fabulous designer emporium that showcases a special festival line of fashion and accessories, such as sequin face masks and vintage finds. thatthing.co
Bristol Pride: Catch queens from RuPaul's Drag Race UK and join in the comedy, cabaret and theatre nights. La! 3-16 July; bristolpride.co.uk/festival-21

EAT & DRINK

Sonny Stores: This corner shop gem is from ex-River Café chef Pegs Quinn. Think a sophisticated take on scrambled eggs with anchovy butter. sonnystores.com
Klosterhaus: Snap a selfie at the grand island bar in this opulent Quakers Friars building. The menu has a German accent; choose from an array of beers or opt for a Kloster fizz on the grand terrace. Lederhosen optional. klosterhaus.co.uk
Woky Ko Cargo: The freshly made bao buns by former MasterChef finalist Larkin Cen are a must at his award-winning Asian restaurant in Wapping Wharf. wokyko.com
Milk Thistle: Spot the tiny nameplate and press the buzzer to enter this former merchant house with its stained glass, wood panelling, leather chairs and speakeasy vibe. The Parlour bar offers over 150 cocktails while The Vault does whisky and spirits. One to book. milkthistlebristol.com
Clifton Observatory: The Rooftop Terrace of this former windmill gives fabulous views of the city's famous suspension bridge. cliftonobservatory.com

SLEEP

Number 38: Book into the West Loft Suite on the top floor of this Georgian townhouse and look out to the Clifton Downs from your super-king-size bed. Then hop into the copper bathtub for a soak. Doubles from £115 B&B (£125 at weekends); number38clifton.com

LONDON

With museums and galleries aplenty and countless fantastic places to eat and drink, the capital guarantees you a great time.

SEE, DO, SHOP

Somerset House: Enjoy musical bumper cars courtesy of Mercury Prize 2020 nominee Anna Meredith in a courtyard decorated by Yinka Ilori. Plus food and drink from chef Jimmy Garcia. Dodge Lates on Thursday and Friday nights also features leading DJs. somersethouse.org.uk
The Line: Walk this three-hour sculpture trail (the-line.org) from the Olympic Park, Stratford, to The O2 Arena in Greenwich and see sculptures by artists such as Anish Kapoor, Abigail Fallis and Damien Hirst. For an adrenaline rush, climb the O2 summit (Up at The O2; theo2.co.uk).
Yayoi Kusama Infinity Rooms: One of the hottest tickets in town, see two mirror room installations created by the renowned Japanese artist. tate.org.uk
Coal Drops Yard: A buzzy shopping and foodie destination on the canals of King's Cross. Shop the fashion, lifestyle, beauty and homewares stores including favourites Earl of East, Caravane and Wolf & Badger. coaldropsyard.com
Annie's Ibiza: Annie Doble's Carnaby Street spin-off of her famous Ibiza store stocks vintage clothes that major in colour, sequins and feathers. anniesibiza.com

EAT & DRINK

Sea Containers London x Laurent Perrier Summer Terrace: Dine on a seasonal summer menu and sparkling fizz with stunning views of the Thames. seacontainerslondon.com

Yayoi Kusama's mind-blowing installation. Right: NoMad Below, Bloomsbury Hotel

The NoMad Restaurant's glass ceiling in a three-story atrium is one highlight of this dining and drinking space. london/dining
Callooh Callay: In a crazy-in-a-good-way Shoreditch bar and calloohcallaybar.com

STAY