Terms and Conditions

This is important information which you must read carefully. You should retain copies of your booking form and advertisement information forms for your records.

1. Advertisement Entries

All Bristol Visitor Guide advertisements will follow a standard layout within a dedicated section in the Guide. All advertising should be supplied digitally as print ready CMYK 300dpi PDF. Any artwork produced by Visit Bristol or its agents remains the exclusive property of the company at all times.

2. Refusal

Destination Bristol t/a Visit West reserves the right to refuse without explanation the whole or part of an entry and to limit the size or amend any entry should it deem it necessary or desirable to do so to bring the copy in line with the company's style guidelines, or for clarity. Advertisements will not be accepted from advertisers who have outstanding accounts with Destination Bristol t/a Visit West, until such time as all outstanding accounts have been cleared in full.

3. Liability

No liability is accepted by Destination Bristol t/a Visit West for any error, inaccuracy or for the omission of whole or any part of an entry unless such is occasioned by the negligence of the Company, its agents, servants or representatives.

4. Copyright

Permission must be obtained from the owner of the copyright of any photographs or artwork embodied in an entry to reproduce the same in that connection. The submission of copy containing a photograph or artwork shall be deemed to incorporate an agreement to indemnify Destination Bristol t/a Visit West against civil actions, claims and demands (and all costs and expenses incurred in the connection therewith) that might result from the reproduction of such photograph or artwork. You should, therefore, ensure that you have the appropriate indemnity insurance cover.

5. Trade Descriptions

All copy must comply strictly with the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968 and is accepted for publication by Destination Bristol t/a Visit West in the normal course of business. The submission of copy by an advertiser shall be deemed to incorporate an agreement to indemnify Destination Bristol t/a Visit West and its officers against the consequences of any prosecution under the Act and all other civil proceedings whatsoever consequent upon the publication of the entry. You should, therefore, ensure that you have the appropriate indemnity insurance cover.

6. Proofs/Amendments

Colour proofs of all entries will be submitted to all participants for final checking. Please check carefully. Please note, amendments can only be accepted in writing. An additional charge of £50 will be made for alterations to proofs which are a departure from the original copy submitted. The advertiser shall be responsible for checking and, if necessary, correcting the proof and returning it within 72 hours. Once the proof has been approved for print, no further changes will be made. Failure to return proofs by the requested dates will jeopardise your inclusion in the publication.

7. Cancellation and Amendments

Once an advertisement has been placed, it can only be cancelled by the advertiser in writing. Cancellation charges will be made as follows: Cancellations received after Thursday 23rd October 2025 – total fee.

8. Payment

Invoices will be sent out on receipt of booking form. All invoices not paid in full within a 30-day term may incur interest at a rate of 4% above Bank of England base rate.
